

Women in Sustainability & Energy (WISE), created by Building Energy Exchange in 2015, is a lecture series showcasing the work of exceptional women in the energy industry, and a growing network of sustainability professionals. This initiative promotes year-round dialogue and provides an opportunity for emerging professionals to learn from industry leaders, share ideas, and advance equity in the workplace.

WISE has been received with overwhelming support, and we look forward to 2023 programming, including a keynote event, virtual media clubs, guest interviews, and our annual WISE Holiday Party.

October 25, 2022. 50+ people enjoy a WISE networking lunch event.

impact: WISE in numbers

In over seven years of WISE programming, we have:

- held 50+ panels, keynote programs, networking events, and media clubs;
- featured 70+ women leaders;
- engaged 500,000+ on social media, including 670+ LinkedIn group members;
- welcomed 2,700+ attendees at WISE events.

BE-Ex is building on this momentum with routine media clubs and continued correspondence with via LinkedIn and newsletters to help our community connect on a more regular basis, and the development of additional networking opportunities designed support the growth of professionals

WISE 2023 sponsorship opportunities

WISE sponsors play a key role in supporting BE-Ex's effort to expand the network of women leaders in the industry and to engage diverse communities in conversations about energy efficiency solutions. Your contribution ensures that WISE can continue to deliver high-quality, effective programming. BE-Ex is seeking Luminary ($7,500/year), Community ($5,000/year), and Program ($2,500/year) sponsors.

WISE 2023 programming

Keynote Event

A keynote speaker event will be our premier program of the 2023 WISE series, targeted for Climate Week 2023. We look forward to developing this special event with advisement from our Luminary sponsors.

AMA (Ask Me Anything) Interviews

We will host at least two 1-on-1 conversations between a BE-Ex staff member and an accomplished woman at the executive level in the energy or sustainability sector. We welcome guest suggestions from our sponsors.

Media Club

We will host at least three conversation-oriented gatherings covering current media items relevant to sustainability and/or energy. We welcome suggestions for media items or speakers from our sponsors.

Holiday Party

Our annual WISE Holiday party convenes BE-Ex and WISE community members to celebrate the close of the year, with an opportunity for remarks from our Community and Luminary sponsors.
