

+

Future Housing Initiative Equity, Health, & Carbon Database for Multifamily Housing

Advisory Group Members

This small group of leading industry professionals guides our work on the Bank of America-funded Equity, Health, & Carbon Database for Multifamily Housing project. They helped define the data points to collect in a database, with a focus on integrating equity metrics from the beginning. They also provided input to implementing and interpreting field research with residents living in affordable housing.

1. Rich Brown, Senior Vice President, Environmental Program Director, Bank of America, Project Sponsor - Retired
2. Amy Brusiloff, Community Development Executive, Bank of America, Project Sponsor – Active
3. David Davenport, Managing Director, NY Green Bank
4. Lauryn Enrico, Supervisory Policy Analyst, Federal Housing Finance Agency
5. Kenaz Flores, CDFI Lending and Investing Analyst, Bank of America, Project Sponsor – Supportive
6. Kim Foreman, CEO, Environmental Health Watch
7. Angelina Gonzalez Aller, Executive Director, Montana Human Rights Network
8. Kimelyn Harris, Senior Vice President, ESG Program Executive, Bank of America, Project Sponsor - Active
9. David Hsu, Associate Professor, Massachusetts Institute of Technology (former)
10. Bomee Jung, Co-founder and CEO, Cadence OneFive
11. Jamal Lewis, Director of Policy Partnerships & Equitable Electrification, Rewiring America
12. Adam Meier, Director, Green & Healthy Communities, Housing Partnership Network
13. John Moon, Senior Vice President, Sustainability Philanthropy Leader, Wells Fargo
14. Raymond Nevo, State Policy and Equity Manager, National Housing Trust
15. Sarah Newman, Data Scientist Team Lead, Pacific Northwest National Laboratory (PNNL)
16. Lisa Patel, Executive Director, Medical Society and Consortium on Climate and Health (MSCCH)
17. Erin Rose, Vice President, Social Equity, Three3 Inc.
18. Lauren Westmoreland, Vice President of Energy and Sustainability, Stewards of Affordable Housing for the Future (SAHF)
19. Jonathan Wilson, Deputy Director, National Center for Healthy Housing (NCHH)
20. Jamie Woodwell, Vice President of Research, Mortgage Bankers Association